Higher Business School of Professional Studies in Leskovac, has, as a part of the Tempus project Modernization and harmonization of Tourism study programs in Serbia 544543-TEMPUS-1-2013-1-1-RS-TEMPUS-JPCR, reaccredited study program Tourism and Hospitality in order to modernize and harmonize the program with the same or similar study programs with other higher education institutions – partners on the Project. The curricula are the result of joined work of Project partners, where certain specifics of each partner institutions are highlighted. When creating the new curricula, partners had in mind the results of the market analysis (performed by the non-academic partners on the Project) i.e. market needs. With the reaccreditation of this study program Higher Business School of Professional Studies in Leskovac has expanded the number of students that can enroll in the study program Tourism and Hospitality from 99 to 132. This study programs lasts six semesters (three years), and students earn a total of 180 ECTS.

During the realization of the Tempus project Modernization and harmonization of Tourism study programs in Serbia 544543-TEMPUS-1-2013-1-1-RS-TEMPUS-JPCR, based on the market analysis and the need for such staff in this area, we identified a need for accreditation of a new study program Management of Food Technology and Gastronomy. Higher Business School from Leskovac accredited a new study program for a total of 66 students. This study program lasts 6 semesters (three years), and with its successful completion, a student earns a total of 180 ECTS.

Study programs Tourism and Hospitality and Management of Food Technology and Gastronomy are accredited within undergraduate vocational studies.
