November 2016.

Vrnjačka Banja

Project task:

2.5. Development of teaching material

Description of project task:

UNIKG will design contemporary teaching material, such as text books, presentations, case studies and other teaching material, on the basis of previously conducted training courses performed by experts from EU partner institutions. EU experts will review the designed material and provide suggestions and comments. The aim is to obtain teaching material of high quality in compliance with EU standards.

Description of outcomes:

UNIKG has published 14 text books which follow contemporary subjects in the field of tourism, management and economy. These books will be used within existing, but also within newly accredited study programmes and distributed to students free of charge. This report is the result of joint work of staff at the Faculty of Hotel Management and Tourism in Vrnjačka Banja University of Kragujevac.
