The description of the outcome:

This report is the result of joint work of the project team formed of Milutin Đuričić, PhD, Professor of Vocational Studies and Coordinator of MHTSPS TEMPUS project and Nataša Ćirović, PhD, Professor and Vocational Studies.

INTRODUCTION

Improving the quality of education in the field of Tourism can be achieved by modernization of existing and development of the new Tourism study programs in compliance with actual Tourism market needs. It is very complicated to find an actual task due to connection with Development policy of Serbia. According to that aim the next topic is elected: The Museum items as a part of Užice quality tourism offer. Lecturer was Slavica Stefanović, curator and The Museum adviser in The National Museum in Užice.

DESCRIPTION OF THE TRAINING

Lecturer Slavica Stefanović, curator and The Museum adviser in The National Museum in Užice (Figure 1.), held a 1 hour – lecture, on 24th November 2016. There were 72 students (42 female and 30 male). (Figure 2. and Figure 3.).

Students were very satisfied with the quality of lecture and expressed their satisfaction with thunderous applause. They asked about current parts of the lecture and explained dilemmas.

The most interesting moment of this training was a discussion about tourism services market examination and how on the right way designed that examination for tourism attractions presentation offered by The National Museum in Užice. It is pointed out that students of Tourism study program have to be informed about The National Museum offers and introduced it in their future work and promotion of Užice as a tourism attraction. The other locations covered by The National Museum in Užice should be part of unique tourism product of West Serbia tourism region.

CONCLUSION

All participants pointed out that this kind of lecture are very important due to improving teaching process and it should be more practising.

Also, many ideas which are provide an employment and better life for future tourism workers are proceeded from this lecture.
